DISPUTE RESOLUTION

1. Any dispute arising under this Agreement may be initiated only in the following venues: (i) Pennsylvania state court in Bucks County; (ii) binding arbitration in Bucks County, Pennsylvania.
2. All disputes arising under sections IV-V, below, shall be initiated only in the United States District Court for the Eastern Pennsylvania; provided, however that if that court does not have jurisdiction, then such dispute shall be initiated in a Pennsylvania state court located in Bucks County, Pennsylvania.
3. Before any action is commenced pursuant to section III(A), above, the party that seeks to initiate the action (the "Complaining Party") shall first provide written notice to the other party advising it of the nature of the dispute and all relevant facts to support its proposed claims, including all relevant documentation. The party receiving such notice from the Complaining Party shall have thirty (30) days to cure the issues raised before any action may be commenced by the Complaining Party.

4. Any action or dispute submitted to binding arbitration as provided herein shall be initiated at the written demand of the Complaining Party after that party has complied with the terms of this section. Any such arbitration shall be before a panel of 3 arbitrators that the parties agree to, under the rules of the American Arbitration Association. There shall be no discovery in connection with the arbitration, it being the parties' intention to achieve the maximum cost-saving benefit of arbitration by having all evidence submitted during the course of hearings before the arbitrator. The arbitrator shall apply the law of Pennsylvania and shall render a written, reasoned decision. The parties hereto agree to be bound by the award of such arbitration, and judgment upon the award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The parties further agree that all costs incurred by such parties with respect to such arbitration, including the arbitrator's fees and expenses, and the fees and expenses of attorneys engaged by such parties shall be paid by the losing party based upon the arbitrator's determination

CHOICE OF LAW.

This Agreement shall be interpreted and enforced pursuant to the laws of the State of Pennsylvania without reference to its conflicts of law principles.
